

CALL FOR GRANT ON CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

International conference “DECENT WORK IN THE DIGITAL AGE” 28 April 2023, Budapest, Hungary

Organisers:

Pázmány Péter Catholic University Labour Law Department (Budapest) and Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Budapest

We cordially invite labour lawyers and other experts dealing with the labour market and particularly labour law to send an abstract of maximum 500 words on their research connected to digital transformation of labour law and the labour market. The abstracts will be evaluated by a scientific committee.

The conference is sponsored by Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Budapest.

The sponsor offers research grants for those selected applicants, who submit a paper and present it at the conference. The grant is EUR 150.

Those who are selected can:

- publish their full paper in English in the Hungarian Labour Law E-Journal in 2023 (hllj.hu), and
- present their findings at the international conference “Decent Work in the Digital Age” on 28 April 2023. The presentations will be in parallel panels.

Venue: Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Law Faculty (1088 Budapest Szentkirályi str. 28).

Confirmed keynote speakers: Jeremias Adams-Prassl, Edoardo Ales, Antonio Aloisi, Frank Hendrickx, David Mangan, Emanuele Menegatti, Tonia Novitz, Achim Seifert.

The procedure of application:

1. Send an abstract up to 500 words to gyulavari.tamas@jak.ppke.hu by 15 January 2023.
Please include your name, title, affiliation, e-mail address.
2. The abstracts are evaluated by a scientific committee. Applicants are notified of the evaluation by 10 February 2023.
3. The selected applicants shall send their full papers by 20 March 2023.

We look forward to your proposals!

Tamás Gyulavári and Gábor Kártyás
Pázmány Péter Catholic University
Labour Law Department