

Invitation

Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Budapest organizes its next study launch and online discussion event
at 5 pm, 7th May 2020
on The Effects Of The Corona Lockdown on The Online and Offline Media in Hungary

Programme:

17.00-17.05

Introduction:

Zsolt Bogár, Friedrich Ebert Stiftung

17.05-17.15

Presentation of the situation report

What are the consequences of the corona lockdown on the press market economically (advertising, distribution etc) and politically (any effects of the extra power of the government to fight the crisis)? Do journalists get honest and complete information regarding the virus situation? How is the media coverage? Are there any weaknesses or shortcomings in corona reporting? The report is based on anonim interviews with key players of the online and offline media in Hungary.

Rapporteur: Leonárd Máriás, researcher, journalist

17.15-17.45: Panel discussion: What are the expectations and how to handle the situation?

Participants:

Szabolcs Dull, editor in chief, Index.hu

Péter Szauer, chairman & CEO, HVG Group

Ágnes Urbán, economist, associate professor and chair, Infocommunications Department at the Corvinus University of Budapest, director, Mérték Media Monitor

moderator: Alinda Veiszer (atv)

17.45-18.00: Q&A
